STRIKE IN CZAR'S EMPIRE COLLAPSES

"Reds" Are Preparing For a Political Revolution.

15,000,000 PEASANTS FACE FAMINE

While the Great Strike Failed to Materialize, Yet Russian Socialists Are Preparing to Force Government to Grant Their Demands.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 21.—With the collapse of the strike, the leaders of the "Reds" say they will now devote their energies to the preparation of a universal political strike to sustain the revolutionary program when the national assembly meets.

These plans which were suddenly upset by the precipitation of the railroad strike last month, are exceedingly ambitious involving the co-operation of the workmen in the cities and the peasantry, and if possible, the army and navy.

The propaganda among the soldiers and sailors will be pushed energetically. The leaders already claim that they have organized the peasantry in five districts of Kharkoff province, the peasants having agreed not to work for the landlords when the strike is called. They anticipate that the famine which is at the doors of almost 15,000,000 peasants of the central provinces according to estimates, will prove an effective ally of the agitation as they promise to give the peasants land to an unlimited extent. The plague which is moving northward from the Kirghiz steppes, if not stamped out in the Vistula region, may also be made to serve the purpose of arousing the ignorant and superstitious peasants. The leaders will urge the proletariat everywhere to secure arms and be prepared to fight for their rights.

The struggle in progress in the Moscow zemstvo congress is watched with intense interest. The main question to be decided is whether the zemstovists will co-operate with the government and on what terms.

The test probably will come upon the resolutions to be offered by M. N. Emiroveski, mayor of Saratoff, and M. Kucheroff, mayor of Kharkoff, proposing co-operation with Count Witte in the general pacification of the country and the introduction of the reforms with the understanding that the national assembly will work out the details. The men who are making a fight on the necessity for supporting Count Witte urge that unless the country is tranquilized, the government will be forced to return to reactionary measures. From the dispatches received, however, it is likely that even if the radical wing is out voted certain guarantees will be demanded as the price of co-operation of the zemstvoists. It is significant that a delegate to the zemstvo who presented himself as the representative of the Jewish population of Vilna, Lithuania is included. Many Liberals here believe that the congress is sure to result in a split and that the Radical wing standing on its insistance upon a constituent assembly and universal suffrage will refuse all connection with the government. The plan loudly discussed by the extremists a fortnight ago of of turning the congress into a constituent assembly appears to have fallen through.

While no further information has been received regarding the reported false emperor who was said to be marching at the head of thousands of peasants in the province of Penza, the turbulence there has become so threatening that the government has placed the province in a state of siege.

Arrested for Singing Patriotic Songs

Lodz, Russian Poland, Nov. 21.—Two hundred persons were arrested by the military in the Catholic church of the Holy Cross here yesterday for singing patriotic songs. When the soldiers reached Mikalajewska street with their prisoners a crowd of people abused the escort and the officer in command ordered the soldiers to shoot. Two men and one woman were killed and four men were wounded.

TAMMANY SPENT LOT OF MONEY.

Great Amount of Currency Was Withdrawn from Banks.

New York, Nov. 21.—Information was laid before Attorney General Meyer that a Tammany leader drew $50,000 in one dollar bills from a bank on the day before election, says a Herald paper. Clarence J. Shearn, counsel for William R. Hearst, last night said he would make known to Mr. Mayer the name of this leader, the bank from which the money was withdrawn and all other details.

Mr. Shearn said that in the case of other Tammany leaders also he will give the attorney general specific inbank of the large sum of money the day before election.

Alderman Gaffney, Abraham Levy, Henry W. Unger, Charles F. Dillon and George W. Simpson will be examined by the grand jury tomorrow in the matter of disappearance of John Krup, who was under $5,000 bail on charge of illegal voting. Probably application will be made before Judge Dickey in Brooklyn today to open a ballot box from the annexed district to the Bronx where fraud is charged.

Regardless of the decision in that case Mr. Shearn wil apply tomorrow to have a ballot box from a district in Greater New York or Brooklyn opened on the ground that fraud has been perpetrated. That is what we have been working toward from the beginning, he said last night. "We have not expected to reverse the result by an inspection of the void or protested ballots and comparing the tally sheets with the inspectors' returns."

TRYING TO ORGANIZE "NEWSIES"

Cleveland Ohio Man, Endeavoring to Interest John D. Rockefeller.

New York, Nov. 21.—H. M. Briggs, who organized the newsboys of Cleveland and started them on a crusade against sin is in New York and trying to interest John D. Rockefeller in a movement to establish the "newsies" under one roof.

Mr. Briggs spent several hours with Mr. Rockefeller yesterday and is convinced that the latter is just as much interested in the newsboys in New York as he is in those of his native city. Mr. Briggs said last night:

While I am in New York on business I have taken time to seek with Mr. Rockefeller concerning the condition of that wonderful army of boys who are fighting through every season in the year to support themselves and members of their families. In Cleveland, we have had great success. I started the movement in my store. The boys got to coming there in the evenings, and we gave them good times. Their numbers increased. There has never been a time since that first session when interest lagged. There is no reason why the newsboys of every city in the country cannot be organized and I am going about it with a view to seeing this idea fulfilled.

Rank of Russian Legation.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 21.—The question of the rank of the Russian legation at Tokio is practically settled. Japan agreeing to accept M. Rakhmeteff as minister with the understanding that the legation later will be raised to an embassy. During the negotiations now in progress at Pekin between Baron Komura, the special envoy of Japan, and the Chinese officials, Russian diplomay has simply been directed to safe-guarding Russian interests at Pekin. The Chinese government has already given Russia assurances that China will not enter in to any secret treaty with Japan covering Manchuria and that Russia will be entitled to the benefits of any privileges Japan obtains.

Knoxville, Tenn., Nov. 21—Rev. J. S. Kennedy, D.D., one of the veteran members of the Holston conference Methodist Episcopal church, south died at his home in this city today. He was in his eightieth year. He was licensed to preach Feb. 15, 1843, and continued active in ministerial and ed[illegible] work until 1903. SIXTEEN MILLION DOLLARS NEEDED

To Continue the Work of Constructing Canal.

ANXIOUS TO PUSH THE WORK

Board of Panama Canal Commissioners Will Ask Congress for Money to Carry Them Until June 30, 1907—Need of Funds Imperative.

Washington, Nov. 21.—An estimate of $16,000,000 for continuing work on the Panama canal has been sent to the treasury department for the war department to be sent to congress.

The estimate of sixteen million dollars is for expenditures up to and including the fiscal year ending June 30, 1907.

A part of this money will be necessary at once and an emergency appropriation will be asked as soon as congress convenes in order that the work may proceed. It is stated at the offices of the commission today that unless money is provided as soon as congress convenes all work must cease.

The estimate is made without regard to the proposal to issue bonds.

Advocates of a lock canal have not yet despaired of securing the construction of such a canal notwithstanding the fact that the consulting engineers have decided in favor of a sea level canal. It is pointed out that the final decision rests with the president and that the matter of time and expense will be considered by him very carefully. It is also known that the president is very anxious to have the work completed at an early date and for that reason is believed to favor a lock canal. A strong minority report in favor of a lock canal will be made by the five members who disagreed with the majority.

WOULD LIMIT THEIR ASSETS.

Life Insurance Commissioner of California Presents Novel Plan.

San Francisco, Nov. 21.—A Myron Wolfe, the present state insurance commissioner, in connection with the developments made during the insurance investigation in New York, has framed a line of action with relation to the department of life insurance and has prepared a general line of action of his attitude on the result of the exposures of the maladministration of the companies' affairs. Wolfe has decided to go before the legislature and recommend important changes in the laws covering the regulation of insurance companies in California. He has decided that there shall be a limitation on the assets of the companies and that no company should be allowed to do business in this state if its assets are more than $500,000,000. Wolfe also believes there shall be concerted action by the states of the union so that the legislation might me made uniform as to the restriction and regulations.

Japan Refuses Convoy.

Tokio, Nov. 21.—It is reported here that Russia apprehending a mutiny of prisoners on board the transports conveying them from Japan, asked the Japanese government to convoy them with warships to Vladivostok. The Japanese declined to do so. Strong enmity between the members of the army and navy on the vessels is said to exist. Admiral Rojestvensky is reported to be keeping in his cabin on the Borodneji. General Danieloff, who came here to arrange for the transfer of the prisoners, has left Tokio in great haste for Nagasaki.

Two Men Injured in Fight.

Chattanooga, Tenn., Nov. 21—As the result of an affray this morning between W. B. Crabtree, a detective in the service of the Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis railway and Hugh Lee, a former locomotive engineer and now a saloon keeper, both men were seriously injured. Crabtree has a bullet wound and Lee received two dangerous stabs. The officer says that the saloonist was the aggressor.

FARMERS TO HELP UNIONISTS.

Interesting Address of Texan at Labor Federation Meeting.

Pittsburg, Pa., Nov. 21.—The opening of the second week of the American Federation of Labor convention was marked by an interesting address by E. A. Calvin, of Fort Worth, Tex., representing the Farmers' Educational and Co-Operative Union of America.

Mr. Calvin stated at the last convention of the farmers' unions a resolution was adopted putting on record the members for the future exclusive purchase of union-made goods. He said the purpose of the farmers' union was to eliminate speculation in cotton. The cornering of the cotton market by speculations must be stopped and only by co-operation with organized labor can this be accomplished. The southern farmers, he said, are anxious and willing to do all in their power to aid any movement that will benefit them. Mr. Calvin extended the fraternal greetings of the farmers' union to the federation convention.

F. H. Foster, of Boston, secretary of the committee on the president's annual report, submitted the conclusion of that committee. The committee commented extensively on the recommendations embodied in President Gompers report and unanimously approved all of them.

British Seamen Belonging to Prince Louis' Squadron Stranded.

New York, Nov. 21.—About 200 sailors from the British squadron commanded by Prince Louis of Battenburg were missing from their ships when the squadron made ready to sail today. Several of those who had overstayed their leave were turned away when they tried to board their ships this morning. As it was, within a few hours of the fleet's sailing time, when they made their belated appearance, the officers treated them as deserters, refusing to let them step on board.

The officers said they were willing to lose men on the principle that they are worthless and their loss is a good riddance.

Many of the rejected sailors wept. Their uniforms in some cases had been taken from them in Bowery resorts and they had spent all ther money before returning to their ships. Many of them imediately applied to the immigration authorities for their return to England. Commissioner Watchern said that a fine of $2 a head would be levied on the prince's fleet for every sailor who appears to have been left stranded in New York, the same as is imposed on captains of trans-Atlantic steamers for every immigrant smuggled into the United States without due examination.

Castro Explains His Action.

New York, Nov. 21.—A cable dispatch to The Herald from Caracas says that President Castro demands that the offensive words in the Venezuelan counter protest be indicated for the purpose of enabling him to make a final reply to France's so called insolent answer. Notwithstanding the hostilities shown by France Senor Ibarra, minister of foreign affairs, requested the American minister Mr. Russell, to receive the still unclaimed funds under the Plumly award which were due on the 16th instant.

Football Fatality in New Orleans.

New Orleans, Nov. 21.—The first football fatality that has ever occurred in New Orleans was recorded today in the death of G. C. Ficken, full back on the junior team of the South Athletic club. Ficken was, it is believed, struck on the head during one of the scrimmages in a game between the South Athletic club and the Queen and Crescent team played Sunday.

Case Baffles Physicians.

Syracuse, N. Y., Nov. 21—Miss Florence Ryan, 21 years of age, awoke yesterday from a state of unconsciousness into which she sank on March 7. She recognized relatives and talked to them. One year ago Miss Ryan fell into a trance and as a result of injuries sustained soon afterward lapsed into unconsciousness. Her case has baffled the physicians.

OVER ONE HUNDRED LIVES LOST IN WRECK

French Steamer Totally Destroyed on Les Portes Reef.

BOILERS OF STEAMER EXPLODED

Many Bodies Are Picked Up on the Beach—Corpse as Found Presented an Awful Spectacle, Showing the Terrible Struggle They Underwent.

Paris, Nov. 21.—Special reports received here of the wreck of the steamer Hilda which left Southampton on Friday night for St. Malo, France, and were totally wrecked on Las Portes reef, outside of Jarin ligat house yesterday morning with the loss of over a hundred lives, give a graphic description of the disaster.

Owing to rough sea weather with a thick snow storm, the captain of the Hildo probably took the bouy ligat of the rocks for the St. Malo ligathouse. He gave signals which were not seen by harbor employes and the the steamer proceeded slowly towards the light. Then the Hilda struck the rocks, the steamers boilers exploding and she was cut in two, giving the passengers no time to save their lives.

Seven bodies wearing life belts were stranded off the village of Ct. Cast yesterday evening. The coast near St. Malo is covered with the wreckage. Two-thirds of the Hilda's passengers were French farmers returning to France with heavy sums in gold from the sale of their yearly harvest of onions and potatoes. The others were English families who were going to spend the winter at Dinard.

The wreck lies at Battle, 3 miles off St. Malo, showing only her mainmast and forecastle.

A correspondent of The Matin went to the scene of the wreck on a government steamer with the local officials. They picked up five bodies which were entangled in the rigging of the Hilda. The bodies presented a dreadful spectacle with arms and legs twisted in all directions and hands torn from the desperate struggle for life.

123 Men Were Drowned.

London, Nov. 21.—The London and Southwestern Railway company announced this afternoon that an official report had been received from St. Malo stating that the total number of persons on board the Hilda wrecked off the French coast Sunday morning was 129. As only six were saved, 123 were drowned.

A telegram from St. Cast, near St. Malo, says that 51 bodies have been washed up on the beach.

Fatal Explosion of Gas Jet.

Columbia, S. C., Nov. 21.—As the result of an explosion of gas in his office here today, Captain Wade Hampton Cobb, probate judge, is dying at the Columbia hospital. He had started to open the vault in his office and struck a match to see the combination. The gas fixtures had been leaking, and the explosion which followed threw Judge Cobb across the office with great violence. The office was wrecked and the force of the explosion smashed all the glass in th ecourt house windows.

Pickpockets Are Identified.

Valdosta, Ga., Nov. 21.—Hon. W. W Ashburn, of Moultrie, who was robbed of a considerable sum by pickpockets here on Friday, came to the city and positively identified one of the men in jail here as the party who got his money. The crook took advantage of a jam of people at the Georgia Southern passenger station, and although Mr. Ashburn had a good view of the thief, he was unable to stop him on account of the crowd. Tht others of the alleged crooks have been identified by parties who were robbed.

Banks Have Plenty of Money.

New York, Nov. 21.—The clearing house, according to today's bank's statement, hold $2,915,190 in excess the legal requirement of 25 per cent of deposits, against a deficit of $2,436,300 last week.

SPECIAL AND AUCTION SALES.

Some of the Opportunities Offered People Hunting Bargains.

Many of the merchants of Gainesville are educating the purchasing public up to the fact that they can save many dollars by watching the advertising columns of The Sun and improving the opportunities afforded them by these merchants to purchase seasonable goods at reduced prices.

Some of the wise ones will say that the goods so offered are from old stock or nothing but trash that they desire to work off on the unwary. But this is not the fact, as our merchants often get overloaded with goods and to reduce stock inaugurate these cut-price sales.

Among the dealers who are always giving these sales we note that Phifer Bros. of the New York Racket are among the leaders. They not only offer bargains with goods marked down, but on Wednesday last inaugurated an auction sale which will be a feature of their special days from time to time, where the people can buy at their own price, and if you would be on the alert for all these chances, watch our advertising columns.

As The Sun goes to upwards of 2,000 people in the county, it is plain to see that the merchant who takes advantage of its columns uses the best and cheapest method in advertising these events.

FALL COLDS

Prominent Society Woman Advises Gainesville People Best Means to Cure Them.

"To the People of Gainesville: Knowing how prevalent hard colds are at this season of the year and into what danger they often lead, I want to tell you of my experience, as it may be the means of saving your life, as I believe mine was saved by Vinol, the best cod liver oil preparation in the world.

SALLIE VAN WICK.

"On my way home from a reception, thinly clad, I contracted a severe cold and cough I tried different cod liver oil preparations and other remedies; they only upset my stomach and gave me no relief I finally sent for my physician. He prescribed for me, but I constantly grew worse, and as a last resort he advised me to try Vinol. I found it was delicious to take and did not upset my stomach like the other cod liver oil preparations. It soon effected a complete cure, built up my general health and made me feel stronger and better than I have for years.

"My druggist, from whom I purchased Vinol, tells me that it has taken the place of old-fashioned cod liver oil and emulsions, because it contains in a highly-concentrated form all the medicinal, curative and body-building elements of cod liver oil actually taken from fresh cods' livers, but without a drop of the system-clogging oil or grease to upset the stomach and retard its work, and if Vinol does for Gainesville people what it did for me, it will be worth $100 a bottle to them."—SALLIE VAN WICK, Vice-Pres. of the Ander-on Driving Club, Atlanta, Ga.

Our local druggist, Mr. W. M. Johnson, says "we have never sold a remedy in our store equal to Vinol for chronic coughs, colds and bronchial tubes or to build up a run-down system, and we will return the money in every case where it fails to give satisfaction."

HEAT AND LIGHT.

The Difference In the Penetrating Ability of Their Rays.

The rays of heat and light are quite independent of each other in their ability to penetrate different substances. For illustration, glass allows the sun's heat to pass through as readily as it does the rays of light, and that without heating the glass too. If the glass be coated with lampblack, however, the rays of light are arrested, but the heat passes through as before, not a single degree's difference in the latter phenomenon being noticeable. Then, again, both heat and light pass through water, provided it is clear. One of the oddities in this connection is this: Although the heat and light pass through water in its normal state, the addition of a little powdered alum, which readily dissolves without leaving the least murkiness, will arrest the rays of heat to such an extent as to almost immediately raise the temperature of the water to a perceptible degree, yet the light continues to pass through as before.

Ice, like glass, also transmits both heat and light. Dr. Sutherland in "Observations Upon the Icebergs of Baffin's Bay" says: "Several pieces of granite were found deeply imbedded in ice without any communications with outside air. These were all surrounded with what might be termed an atmosphere of water." The explanation of such an oddity is this: The heat passing through the ice had been absorbed by the stones until their temperature had been raised to a degree sufficient to melt the ice around them.

"The Lost Chord."

Perhaps the most successful song of modern times is "The Lost Chord," whose sale in Great Britain has exceeded 250,000 copies. The story of its composition, as told by Mr. Willeby in his "Masters of English Music," illustrates that in art, as in statesmanship, success came to those—

Who knew the seasons when to take
Occasion by the hand.

For nearly three weeks Arthur Seymour Sullivan had watched by the bedside of a dying brother. One night, when the end was not far off and his brother was sleeping, he chanced to come across some verse of Adelaide Procter's which five years before he had tried in vain to set to music.

In the silence of that night watch he read them over again and almost instantly their musical expression was conceived. A stray sheet of music paper was at hand and he began to write. The music grew and he worked on, delighted to be helped while away the hours of watching. As he progressed he felt sure the music was what he had sought for and failed to find on the occasion of his first attempt to set the words. In a short time it was complete and not long after in the publisher's hands.

Slaves of Their Own Doubts.

The habit many people have of torturing themselves because of their inability to remember whether or not they have done certain things is diagnosed as a disease by a French physician and called folie de doute. The victims are slaves of their own doubts. They suffer tortures from their inability to remember whether they addressed a letter correctly, whether they turned off the gas properly before they got into bed, whether the fires have been properly safeguarded for the night, etc. The business man cannot remember whether he closed his desk when he left his office and perhaps gets off his train at the first station and takes the next one back to town only to find that everything is all right. The housekeeper lies awake for hours worrying about the kitchen window and finally creeps downstairs to find it securely closed. The learned physician who diagnosed this distressing complaint has not, unhappily, suggested a remedy.

Neuralgia Pains.

Rheumatism, lumbago and sciatic pains yield to the penetrating influence of Ballard's Snow Liniment. It penetrates to the nerves and bones, and being absorbed into the blood its healing properties are conveyed to every part of the body, and effect some wonderful cures. 25c, 50c and $1. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Immortality.

Humanity and immortality consist neither in reason nor in love; not in the body nor in the animation of the heart of it nor in the thoughts and stirrings of the brain of it, but in the dedication of them all to him who will raise them up at the last day.—John Ruskin.

COTTON ADVANCES FIVE DOLLARS BALE

7,490,367 Bales Ginned Up to Nov. 14 of This Year's Growth

AGAINST 9,786,600 LAST YEAR

Wild Scenes on New York Cotton Exchange When Report Was Made Public at 2 p. m., the Price Advancing 100 Points in Ten Minutes.

Special to The Daily Sun.

New York, Nov 21.—One of the wildest scenes ever witnessed on the New York Cotton Exchange occurred today upon the reading of the Government report showing the number of bales ginned of the present year's growth to be only 7,490,367 bales up to November 14th, whereas those interested in keeping down the price of the staple had predicted that the report would show exceeding eight million. As soon as the report was read the bears scrambled to cover their short contracts, while the bulls tore each others' clothes in their wild efforts to get into the market before the price advanced too high. Just before the reading of the report May cotton ruled at 10.87 and in a few moments the delivery was up to 11.95.

Strange to say the Government report made public today shows only 89,000 more bales ginned than the report of the National Ginners' Association, whereas two weeks ago the difference between the two reports was nearly half a million. The Government report today shows 2,386,235 bales less ginned this season than up to the same date last year and those who have made a study of the crop declare this is conclusive proof that this year's crop will not exceed ten million bales. The closing session of the exchange was excited, May cotton ruling firm at 11.74.

SOUTH PLACE FOR EMIGRANTS.

Great Possibilities in Dixie Land for Foreign Immigration.

Montgomery, Ala., Nov. 21—The special commission of the German government, consisting of Dr. Eugene Weber, of Berlin, and Dr. Zoepfel, of Wiesbaden, sent to the United States to observe immigration possibilities in the south, expressed themselves as most highly pleased with the conditions.

The commissioners are accompanied by the German consul from the south, Dr. Erich Zoepfel-Quellenstein, of Atlanta; C. L. Stone, general passenger agent of the Louisville and Nashville railroad; G. A. Park, general immigration and industrial agent of the same road, and Charles M. Tolcott, district superintendent of the Pullman Car company.

"This is my first visit to Alabama," said Dr. Zoepfel-Quellenstein. "It is great; it is glorious. The prospects for immigrants in your state are something I had never expected.

"When I go to answer my future inquiries from Germany I will know where to point the thousands who want to come to America."

BIRMINGHAM HAS BIG FIRE.

Another Large Conflagration Visits This Alabama City.

Birmingham, Ala., Nov. 21.—A solid half block of buildings was totally destroyed by fire which broke out shortly after midnight this morning at the corner of Third avenue and Nineteenth street. The loss at this hour, 2 o'clock, is estimated at $150,000. The amount of insurance is unknown.

The heaviest losers will be the Alabama Penny Savings bank and the People's Telephone exchange, adjoining. A four-story structure adjoining the store of Loveman, Joseph & Loeb was entirely burned. The upper stories of this building were used as negro club rooms. The first floor was occupied by the R. Knauf Plumbing company and the Birmingham Gun and Key company.

The fire broke out in a warehouse on the alley across from the postoffice and this entire building was quickly in flames. The blaze spread rapidly to the rear of the other buildings and a high wind made the work of controling the fire extremely difficult.

Be sure and use that old and well-tried remedy, Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

Cripple Shoots Son-in-Law.

Atherton, Tex., Nov. 21.—T. J. Hollop, a cripple, shot and mortally wounded Andy Hart, his son-in-law, at his home at East Bernard. Hollop surrendered and is in jail here. Hart was recently indicted at Houston on a charge of murder in connection with the death of his young sister-in-law, Hollop's daughter. While he was under arrest, his wife died also. Hart was released from the indictment charging murder, but was then indicted for adultery.

810,000 Gallons of Booze Burned.

Cornellsville, Pa., Nov. 21.—At the A. Overholt distillery at Bradford, 810,000 gallons of whisky furnished a spectacular fire entailing a loss of $4,000,000 fully covered by insurance. The main bonded warehouse was burned to the ground. The blue tinged flames from the burning alcohol were soon shooting more than 100 feet into the air. As the barrels of old rye on each of the four floors burst, the blazing liquid was splashed inall directions. It is supposed that the fire started either from spontaneous combusiton or from a spark thrown by a passing locomotive down one of the air shafts. Much of the whisky had already been sold and was being kept in storage for the owners.

Burned at Stake by Indians.

Las Angeles, Cal., Nov. 21.—In a letter received by George W. Knox of this city, the fate of Henry Miller and Gus Olinder, who left here on an expedition to Tiburton island, in the gulf of California, a year ago, and who have never been heard from, is probably disclosed. On the desolate shores of the gulf of California, near a deserted Indian village, a wandering herder has just found the trappings of Miller and Olinder, a book of nautical science, which belonged to Captain Olinder, and a pair of human hands, which may have belonged to one of the unfortunate men.

G. B. Burhans Testifies After Four Years.

G. B. Burhans of Carlisle Center, N. Y., writes: "About four years ago I wrote you stating that I had been entirely cured of a severe kidney trouble by taking less than two bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure. It entirely stopped the brick dust sediment, and pain and symptoms of kidney disease disappeared. I am glad to say that I have never had a return of any of those symptoms during the four years that have elapsed and I am evidently cured to stay cured, and heartily recommend Foley's Kidney Cure to anyone suffering from kidney or bladder trouble." J. W. McCollum & Co.

Senator Burton Again on Trial.

St. Louis, Nov. 21.—For the second time within two years United States senator J. Ralph Burton, of Kansas today was called upon to defend himself in the United States circuit court against an indictment charging that he was offered and accepted a compensation from the Rialto Grain and Securities company of St. Louis, now defunct, for using his influence while a member of the United States senate, in behalf of that concern in certain matters pending before the post office department at Washington.

The Sun's Corona.

Thus far we know the corona of the sun to be a sort of outer envelope, so shielding us from the intense solar light and heat that it may be said without exaggerating that the sun has never really been studied comprehensively. Within the corona is an ocean of gas 5,000 miles deep, stained a ruby red by the crimson blaze of hydrogen. Flashes of flame leap from this ruddy mass often to a height of a hundred thousand miles and more.

The "condition report" for November is pronounced a piece of spite work on the part of Secretary Wilson. The bare cotton stalks are in pretty fair condition and the cotton that was on them also, but the cotton isn't there now. Why then the report?

There is only one argument in favor of retaining the present officers of the large insurance companies now in office. They are pretty well fixed now and would not drain the treasury as much as new officers who would think it their duty to line their pockets with the company money.

The Birmingham News says: "M. Witte is working like a Trojan, and so far has shown signs of being able to bring order out of chaos. If the excrescences who follow the Grand Duke business as a profession would co-operate with him instead of opposing, his prospects for success would appear much brighter.

The Sun, published at Jacksonville, made its debut on Saturday last and created a very favorable impression. The editorial writings are well constructed and the contributed articles are of more than ordinary interest. "If it's right we are for it," is a good motto, and we hope to see The Sun prosper along those lines.

This is the season of the year when the ides of November are making the people of the North turn their gaze longingly to the Sunny South. Many are here already and many more are desirous of coming. Some will stay until spring and others will stay all summer, if it is proven to them that it would be good for them. It can be easily proven, and is there any step made to show these facts to the new comer? Let all who can devote a little time to this subject.

SEA ISLAND COTTON.

The Savannah Morning News is devoting much space to the Sea Island cotton industry, and on November 14th has an article of much interest on the improvement of this staple, in which it says that it is probable that the growers of Sea Island cotton at their Valdosta convention will have a matter before them of as much importance as that of organizing for the purpose of holding cotton so as to get a better price for it. The matter in question is that of improving the cotton so as to make the demand for it greater.

It is stated that of the 105,000 bales of last year's crop a good many thousands of bales were carried over, because there was no demand for it, notwithstanding the fact that the price was low. The claim is made that the Sea Island cotton of Georgia and Florida is steadily deteriorating, and that it is much less in favor with spinners than it was a few years back. It seems that in some instances Yanovitch, an Egyptian growth, is preferred to it, because the waste is much less, and also because the weight of the bagging is deducted. There was a time when the growers of Sea Island cotton in Georgia and Florida kept up the grade of their cotton by means of fresh seed from the Sea Islands of South Carolina. They can no longer get seed from that source. The planters of the Islands have combined to prevent the Georgia and Florida planters from getting fresh seed from them.

How then can the grade of the cotton be improved? This is a question which the Federal government is undertaking to answer through its experiments at the experiment farm it has established near Blackshear, in this State. On this farm there has been a great deal of experimenting with seed, and the conclusion has been reached that by means of seed selection a much better grade of Sea Island cotton can be grown. Indeed, the opinion is held that the Sea Island cotton planters of Georgia and Florida can make themselves entirely independent of the planters of the Sea Islands by means of seed selection.

It is well known what has been done in the cultivation of corn by means of seed selection. The yield per acre has been greatly increased. The same thing can be done with Sea Island cotton that is grown in this State and in Florida. As a matter of fact the planters in the Sea Islands are very careful in selecting their seed from year to year. It is told that one planter on the Islands, by very careful selection, produces a cotton for which he finds a ready market at 75 cents a pound.

Probably there are planters of Sea Island cotton in Georgia and Florida who do make an attempt of seed selection, but it is doubtful if the great majority of them are as careful in making selections of seed as they ought to be. Indeed it is a question if they realize the importance of being extremely careful in picking out the very best seed their fields afford. And it is doubtful if the Sea Island growers—that is, those of Georgia and Florida—believe that the demand for their cotton is falling off. It is probable that they think that there is a combination against them for the purpose of getting their cotton at a lower price.

It may be true that there is a combination to beat down the price, but of that we know nothing. There is no good reason why the growers shouldn't organize for the purpose of getting the best price possible for their product, but while they are doing that they shouldn't neglect to improve their cotton by all means available. It is certain that seed selection will do more than anything else to bring about an improvement. This is a matter that ought to be and doubtless will be given very careful consideration at the Valdosta convention. It is possible that more can be done to raise the price for Sea Island cotton by improving the cotton than by forming an organization for holding cotton. There is no reason, however, why both means shouldn't be adopted.

REV. SAM SMALL.

There are many people who frequently say, after they have heard him speak, that Sam Small "is smart, conveying the impression because he signs his name "Rev. Sam Small," that one would be of the opinion that because of his bearing the euphonious cognomen of "Sam Small," even with the prefix of "Rev.," he is simply a rollicking, good fellow instead of a deep-thinking, scholarly orator.

But there are few men in this land of ours, up and down its entire length, that equal him in sound logic and brilliancy. In his lecture Monday evening on "Infidelity" he made a strong impression on his hearers and held the attention of his large audience as if by magic. He advanced many new thoughts and made them so plain that all could understand.

Rev. Sam Small is a grand thinker and speaker and his Small name is such a surprise to all when they come to realize his large and brilliant intellect that his hearers often think that his name is a misnomer and a barrier in his noble work for the good of the human family.

There is no man, however, that can sway the people more than Rev. Sam Small, for he is one of them and is familiar with their needs.

A strong petition will be presented to Governor Broward to have him appoint Miss Nellie Myrick of Jacksonville county superintendent of public instruction for Duval, in place of Prof. Elzey, resigned.

D. J. Boynton has assumed control of The Banner of Liberty at Jasper, and very modestly tells what he will do. He is certainly deserving of credit for his unassuming manner.

Under the present system—or lack of system—of building roads in Volusia county, says The DeLand News, it will take two hundred years to give us roads all over the county. The people want the roads and are willing to pay for them. The only way by which we can ever get them is to bond. The only way by which we can bond is to send representatives to the Legislature who are in favor of bonding.

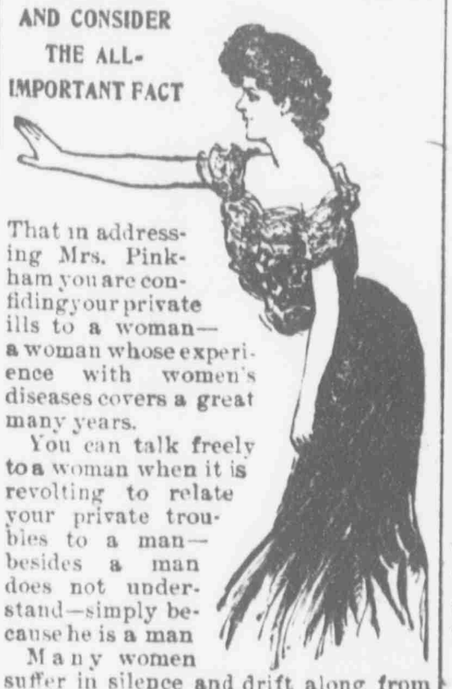
STOP, WOMAN!

AND CONSIDER THE ALL-IMPORTANT FACT



That in addressing Mrs. Pinkham you are confiding your private ills to a woman—a woman whose experience with women's diseases covers a great many years.

You can talk freely to a woman when it is revolting to relate your private troubles to a man—besides a man does not understand—simply because he is a man

Many women suffer in silence and drift along from bad to worse, knowing full well that they ought to have immediate assistance, but a natural modesty impels them to shrink from exposing themselves to the questions and probably examinations of even their family physician. It is unnecessary. Without money or price you can consult a woman whose knowledge from actual experience is great.

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation.

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. All letters are received, opened, read and answered by women only. A woman can freely talk of her private illness to a woman; thus has been established the eternal confidence between Mrs. Pinkham and the women of America which has never been broken. Out of the vast volume of experience which she has to draw from, it is more than possible that she has gained the very knowledge that will help your case. She asks nothing in return except your good-will, and her advice has relieved thousands. Surely any woman, rich or poor, is very foolish if she does not take advantage of this generous offer of assistance.

If you are ill, don't hesitate to get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once, and write Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for special advice.

When a medicine has been successful in restoring to health so many women, you cannot well say, without trying it, "I do not believe it will help me."

PANIC IN JEWISH SERVICE.

Man Fainted In Synagogue Gallery and People Rushed to Escape.

Chicago, Nov. 21.—Scenes of panic interrupted the mourning services held for the murdered Jews in Russia in the synagogue of the congregation of Bethel-Shemadrach yesterday.

Worked into a white heat of emotion by the prayers and lamentations of the pathetic service, the 500 Jews in the synagogue, many with relatives and friends dead or in immediate danger, were startled at the sound of a disturbance in the rear of the hall.

A thud on the floor and the frightened cries told that a man had fainted. An unreasoning fear struck the women in the galleries and many of the men below. In a flash the scene was changed from a scene of wild grief to a mob seeking escape. The women grabbed up their babies and fled screaming to the exists. Men jumped on seats and tables and fought to be the first out.

It did not last long, and no one was hurt seriously. It developed that the man who fainted had been striken with grief.

His mother's death was a sad loss for Mr. Reid, but he learned that lung trouble must not be neglected, and how to cure it. Quickest relief and cure for coughs and colds. THIRTY-NINE MEN CREMATED.

Terrible Fire Occurs in a Glasgow Scotland Lodging House.

Glasgow, Nov. 21—The most terrible fire that has occurred in Great Britain for many years broke out here in a cheap lodging house for men in Watson street, and resulted in the loss of thirty-nine lives and the severe injury of many others.

The flames were first noticed at 6 o'clock this morning on the fourth floor of the building, which was occupied by 330 men. An alarm was raised and the firemen responded quickly, but flames and smoke were then issuing from most of the windows on the fourth floor.

An extraordinary scene was created by a procession of almost naked men rushing out of the entrance to the building and against their frantic efforts to escape the firemen had actually to fight for admission.

Gray, of Minnesota, opened the meeting and Canon Knowles, of St. Chrystoston church, read the lessons. Mr. Sill made a few remarks introducing F. F. Mackay, director of the dramatic school of art, who made the memorial address.

Ask for Foley's Honey and Tar and refuse any substitute offered. J. W. McCollum & Co.

Trial Set for January.

Savannah, Ga., Nov. 21—The trial of Captain Benjamin D. Greene, Colonel John F. Gaynor and others has been set for Tuesday, January 9. The cases were not formally assigned for trial on that date, but Judge Speer adjourned the federal court Saturday night until that time and the understanding was general that the court would return for the purpose of disposing of the Greene-Gaynor cases.

The surest thing on earth to get a man's system "out of whack" is heavy, sour bread, which is caused by several reasons: First, the material may not be good; second, the cooking may be poor. The best flour in the world will make the heaviest bread if improperly mixed or cooked. WE USE THE BEST FLOUR and our "long suit" is knowing how to mix and bake it. Our bread does not cost any more than home-made and in many instances it is so much more palatable.

ENGLISH LABOR LEADER SPEAKS

Delivers Lecture on Labor Movement and Kindred Topics.

New York, Nov. 20.—John A. Hobson, the English labor leader, who is in this country to lecture on the labor movement in England and kindred topics, addressed the people's institute at Cooper Union last night. Mr. Hobson firmly believes that the condition of the working classes can only be better their condition by active participation in the national distinct party. Among other things, he said:

"The law courts, in disputes between employer and employe, have given a series of judgments that have altered the position of the labor unions. The trades-unions are apt to be sued for the illegal actions of their members, and may be depleted of their funds for damages and costs. Other judgments have impaired the power of watching and besetting men during a strike, even when this is done peacefully. The result of this has been more and more to force the trades unions to enter peaceably that they might change the laws.

The British workingman is going into politics. The independent labor party is now the neucleus. In the first three months there must be a general election and there are now 50 manual labor candidates for parliament. Probably half of them will be elected. In the legislative conflict vested in this will have the advice of the best legal talent because it can pay the biggest prices. It must be fought with the same weapons. Don't make your fight so much for wages, but for the higher education and moral life of the people, that they may win their way to legislatures.

GAMBLERS ARE ROUNDED UP.

Indiana Sheriff and Deputies Arrest Fifty Men.

Chicago, Nov. 20.—Indiana harbor is not to be the haven of refuge for the exiled bookmakers of Chicago. Sheriff Dougherty, of Lake county, Indiana, yesterday went on the warpath and "cleaned out" the Indiana harbor poolroom, arresting 50 men.

The raid was filled with men. When the sheriff and his men broke in most of the men yielded, because they could not see no way to escape. The raid was unexpected, and preparations to foil the officers had not been made. Only one of the men in the place got away. He dashed to the second floor and then leaped out of a window. As soon as Sheriff Dougherty had made his "round-up" he called in Justice Homer Ansley, and court was convened in the pool room.

With dispatch th emagistrate decided on a fine of $20.50 for each man. The names were read off, the fines called off without show of defense, and the keepers of the place came forward with such grace as they could muster and paid the penalties. Then Justice Ansley adjourned the court and the gamblers betook themselves to the several trains for Chicago.

The pool room has been advertised extensively, but quietly, and train facilities have been provided over the railroads.

Man's Unreasonableness

Is often as great as woman's. But Thos. S. Austin, manager of The Republican of Leavensworth, Ind., was not unreasonable, when he refused to allow the doctors to operate on his wife for female trouble. "Instead," he says, "we concluded to try Electric Bitters. My wife was then so sick she could hardly leave her bed, and five (5) physicians had failed to relieve her. After taking Electric Bitters she was perfectly cured, and can now perform all her household duties." Guaranteed by all druggists. Price 50c.

Roosevelt to Build Canal.

New York, Nov. 21.—A correspondent of the Herald writing from Panama says that Panamaians want Theodore Roosevelt as a resident of the Isthmus(to build the canal. That he will, says the correspondent, is the belief of many of the Americans and hope all Panamaians. He says the wish is the father to the thought but it is widely circulated that after Mr Roosevtlt retires from the presidency he will be made chairman of the canal commission and immediately take up his residence here.

Pirating Foley's Honey and Tar.

Foley & Co., Chicago, originated Honey and Tar as a throat and lung remedy, and on account of the great merit and popularity of Foley's Honey and Tar many imitations are offered for the genuine. These worthless imitations have similar sounding names. Beware of them. The genuine Foley's Honey and Tar is in a yellow package. Ask for it and refuse any substitute. It is the best remedy for coughs and colds. J. W. McCollom & Co.

MANY CONSUMPTIVES HELPED.

State Hospital in Adirondacks Shows Encouraging Figures....105 Patients Discharged.

The trustees of the New York State Hospital for Incipient Pulmonary Tuberculosis in the Adirondacks have issued their completed statistics for the first year, which is as follows: There were admitted 207 patients, more than half of whom were incipients. There were no deaths. Of the 105 patients discharged, fifty-two were apparently recovered. Twenty-six arrested cases are reported. Sixteen improved, while eleven left without any improvement. The treatment consists mainly of outdoor air, wholesome food and rest. Patients have three full meals and two or three luncheons a day, and 90 of the 105 gained an average of 10.57 pounds each. This is certainly most encouraging and shows that incipient consumptives at least can be cured. There is another treatment perhaps almost as good. Stay home, use cold baths in the morning, get as much outdoor exercise as possible, a generous diet and the continuous use of Scott's Emulsion will doubtless check the progress of the disease and may permanently cure. At any rate it is easy to try it.

SCOTT & BOWNE, 409 Pearl Street, New York.

An Artist's Mistake.

Danton, the celebrated caricaturist, had a wonderful power of modeling from memory. After one long look at his subject he could go to his studio and make a bust quite perfect in its resemblance.

One day a young man came to him, saying that his sister was ill and about to die and that, although the family wished her bust modoled, they dared not excite her by mentioning it. Would he undertake to reproduce her features after seeing her once? Danton agreed, and next day the brother informed his sister that he intended to present her with some jewels and that a young man would bring some specimens for her approval.

Danton brought in the jewels and, going home, modeled a bust of striking resemblance. Next year an old gentleman, the father of the young woman, came to order a bust of the brother, who also had died. This, too, was a marvelous success.

The result of such planning, however, was not always as satisfactory to his patrons as in these cases. A gentleman who could not persuade his wife to sit asked Danton to enter a certain omnibus one day and fix in his memory the features of the lady opposite him.

He did so, modeled a beautiful bust and sent it home. It proved, however, to be not the mistress, but the maid, who had also taken the trip in the omnibus.

The Bengal Grosbeak.

The Bengal grosbeak builds a nest shaped like a bottle and always selects for its support a long, lithe limb overhanging a stream of water. The entrance is beneath, and, from the situation and peculiar shape, it is absolutely impossible for a snake to gain admission to the nest. One naturalist records seeing fourteen attempts on the part of serpents to get at the nest, but the hungry snakes always fell off into the water.

Changed Position.

Fielding—How time changes a man! There's Battser. A dozen years ago he was so engrossed with the teams on the diamond that he cared for nothing else. Now all his thoughts are centered in his family. You know he has a wife and eight children. Rhuns—Well, that isn't so much of a change. He has simply transferred his interest to his home nine.—Judge.

Sluggish Liver a Foe to Ambition.

You cannot accomplish very much if your liver is inactive, as you feel dull, your eyes are heavy and slight exertion exhausts you. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup stimulates the liver and bowels and makes you feel bright and active. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup does not nauseate or gripe and very pleasant to take. Orino is more effective than pills or ordinary cathartics. Refuse substitutes. J. W. McCollom & Co.

EARLY DINING.

In Ancient England It Was at 10 o'Clock in the Forenoon.

The ordinary hour for dinner in England in the fifteenth century appears to have been 10 o'clock in the forenoon. In the larger baronial castles a lavish hospitality was practiced, but even among the lower ranks, says a contemporary, the "bona fide traveler" could always be sure of a welcome and the best provision that the house afforded. To shut the door upon the houseless stranger was an offense which the church would not readily condone, and it was remarked of more than one who had erred in this respect that luck ever afterward deserted him. The approach of the meal was often announced by the blowing of horns, so that wayfarers might hasten their movements.

Curiously enough, grace was said before the tables were laid, and the guests appear to have had their appetites whetted in a most salutary manner by regarding the movements of the attendants as they spread the cloths and brought in saltcellars, drinking vessels and other necessaries. To wait on others at table was considered rather honorable than otherwise, and the story of the Black Prince attending to the wants of the captive French monarch contains nothing extraordinary. In the households of the great the carvers and those who presented the wine at table were never less than esquires and often nobles and barons. —Family Magazine.

An Irishman's Reason.

Sheridan Le Fanu once asked an Irishman what was the English of "Carrigtuohil."

"I never heard any English or Irish name upon it, only 'Carrigtuohil' alone," was the reply.

"I know," said Le Fanu, "it has no other name, but I want to know the meaning of the name."

"Well, now, your honor," he replied, "I never heard any meaning for it only 'Carrigtuohil' alone."

"I know 'carrig' means a dock," persisted Le Fanu, "but what does touhil mean?"

"Well, now, your honor, it's what I can't tell you why it's called 'Carrigtuohil,' unless it's because Mr. Coppinger lives below there in Barry's court."

The Shillalah.

The shillalah, accounted Ireland's national weapon of defense, was originally a common blackthorn stick, but in modern times it has been replaced by the more wiry ash sapling. The real shillalah is a young shoot of the sloe shrub or blackthorn, pulled by the root from the crevice of some rock. After being trimmed it is placed in the smoke of turf neat, which softens the hard fiber, and when it has reached a condition as pliant as rubber it is straightened.

Wealth of Words.

"He talks very interestingly," said one girl.

"Yes," replied the other, "but in all the stories I ever read the man who used lovely language was always poor and struggling. It doesn't seem a good sign to me."—Washington Star.

An Angel Once.

"Does it create a furore in your family when you go home late?" asked Bjones of his friend De Smith.

"No; it creates a fury," was the suggestive answer.—Chicago Record-Herald.

EARLY CALIFORNIA SHIPS.

How Commerce Grew In Pioneer Days of the Golden State.

The first European vessel to enter the port of San Francisco of which there is any record was the Eagle, in 1816, commanded by Captain William H. Davis. She sailed from Boston via the Sandwich Islands and Alaska. She carried an assortment of goods which were a revelation to the natives, and their garments of skins and hides were substituted by the clothing of civilization. Payments were made in hides, tallow, soap and fish. The Eagle then became engaged in the sea otter trade and was very successful, as otters were plentiful in San Francisco bay and all along the coast. She made three trips, netting about $25,000 on each trip. This stimulated others, and this discovery no doubt gave an impetus to commerce which made this port known to the world.

Commerce in those days of manna was carried on in what might be termed a "free and easy" manner. On many articles the duty was 100 per cent, which practically amounted to confiscation or made smuggling necessary in self defense. The Mexican officials generally opened the door. Frequently vessels were permitted to pass Monterey, the port of entry, going to Yerba Buena and, after selling as much of the cargo as possible, to return to Monterey for entry and dispose of the remainder.

The shippers were not sworn as to the value of the cargo. They gave fictitious invoices and by this means would get off on the payment of $5,000 on a $20,000 cargo.

It became so customary to swindle the government as scarcely to excite comment, except in cases where goods were concealed in false linings of the vessels and the government officials were outwitted.

URIC ACID IN THE SYSTEM.

A Medical Opinion on This Foe to Health and Life.

Haig holds that the man of average weight elaborates twelve grains of uric acid in twenty-four hours, and woe betide him if he does not excrete the full amount with due celerity. A little retained uric acid will give rise to headache, lethargy and mental depression. A greater retention will give rise to arthritis, lumbago and sciatica. The uric acid miser will end his days through bronchitis, Bright's disease, apoplexy, diabetes or cancer. Man cannot avoid his fate and cease being a uric acid producer. He can avoid, to some degree, swallowing the wretched stuff. What he cannot avoid swallowing he can, with care, excrete. If man had been wise and had continued to live where he belongs, near the equator, and had fed on fruit and nuts all might have been well. But, having wandered from the tropics, he must be wise or perish. Here are the rules that one must follow to be healthy and live long: First, swallow no uric acid and pass out each day regularly and punctually all that is formed in the body. Second, excretion of uric acid may be obtained by clothing warmly, by avoiding exposure to cold in every way (the morning cold tub is an especial abomination), by eating freely of potatoes (especially in cold weather) and by avoiding fruits. Bicarbonate of sodium, night and morning, for people who live in a climate similar to London's is a fine habit. In addition to all this, it "is also advisable to secure the proper distribution of time between bodily and mental exertion and to dispense with dependence on tonics, stimulants and bracing climates."—New York Medical Journal.

Water Thieves.

Water thieves are not unique. Their prototypes existed at least as long ago as 1479. At that time a Londoner wrote: "This yere a wax chandler in Flete strete had bi craft perced a pipe of the condit withinne the grounde, and so conveied the water into his selar; wherefor he was jugid to ride thrugh the Citee with a condit upon his hedde." There were other difficulties too. A century later (1574) it is recorded that owing to a sudden shower of rain the water in the Dowgate channel "had such a swift course that a lad, minding to have leapt over it, was taken by the feet and borne down with the violence of that narrow stream till he came against a cart wheel that stood in the water gate, before which time he was drowned and stark dead."

A Meerschaum Mine.

"Meerschaum is mined like coal," said a pipe dealer. "It is a soft, soapy stone, and in Asia Minor its mining is an important industry. The crude meerschaum is called hamtash. It is yellowish white in color and a red clay coat or skin envelops it. The blocks cost from $25 to $200 a cart load. They are soft enough to cut with a knife. These blocks in summer are dried by exposure to the sun. In winter a heated room is necessary. Finally the meerschaum blocks are sorted into twelve grades, wrapped in cotton and packed in cases with the greatest care. The bulk of all this meerschaum goes to Vienna. There the best pipe makers in the world live."—Philadelphia Bulletin.

Strength of Insects and Animals.

A series of experiments made to test the jaw force and pulling and lifting strength of various kinds of insects gives some curious points for study. It has been found that a cockchafer can draw fourteen times his own weight and the common honeybee thirty times. From this it may be argued that, weight for weight, each of the above named insects is twenty-one and thirty times respectively stronger than the horse, whose strength, as a rule, is taxed to its utmost in drawing its own weight as a "dead load." A scientist once experimented with a small hard shelled beetle by putting him under a common table tumbler. The little creature, not more than one-third of an inch in length, was able to move the glass in any direction. After the experiment had been satisfactorily made both the tumbler and the bug were weighed, whereupon it was found that the little Hercules had lifted 960 times its own weight! He did not carry the weight, of course, but caused it to make some lively motions.

Fly Wheel Insurance.

Fly wheel insurance is almost pure mathematics. When a wheel is revolved at a high enough speed the centrifugal force exceeds the centripetal and the wheel flies apart. Solid cast iron explodes when the speed at the rim is roughly three miles a minute. A thick rim explodes just as easily as a thin one of the same material. Wood explodes at a greater speed, jointed iron at a less. The underwriter allows a rim speed of a mile a minute, one-third the explosion rate, as a safe limit for solid iron wheels. This permits a two foot pulley wheel sixteen revolutions a second, while it keeps a sixteen foot fly wheel down to two. A jointed wheel is allowed still less. The underwriter has only to name the number of revolutions he authorizes and to proportion his premium to the size of the wheel. The larger the wheel, of course, the more destructive its explosion.—Leslie's Magazine.

Worm Destroyer.

White's Cream Vermifuge not only kills worms, but removes the mucous and slime in which they build their nests; it brings, and quickly, a healthy condition of the body where worms cannot exist. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

REAL ESTATE MATTERS.

Several Good Deals Are Expected to be Made in a Few Days.

While there is no great stir in the real estate market in this city at the present time, there is bound to be a movement along this line soon that will cause some stir along that line.

In the city the prices are firm and many persons would purchase at once if the prices were at what they think would be not too high. There are many inquiries regarding farming lands, and in one or two instances dealers in farm lands are preparing to advertise their offerings in many Northern States.

There is a good demand for farming lands at the present time and it is quite apparent that it will be better in a few weeks or months.

A Delightful Evening Party.

Mr. and Mrs. McCollum very pleasantly entertained a number of their friends Monday evening at their pleasant home, 302 North Oak avenue, to a most exquisitely delightful and daintily prepared game supper, followed by a charming plan of evening enjoyment, consisting of music by Mrs. J. F. Pixton and varied amusements by Miss Rouse.

The event was made more pleasing to all by the lavish display of tastefully blended decorations of the rooms, and those present to enjoy the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Dow, Dr. and Mrs. J. F. McKinstry, Jr., Mrs. C. A. Nichols, Miss Rouse of Ohio, Miss Rogers of St. Petersburg and Miss Cora Lynn.
